

EMCDDA's Traineeship 2020 exercise

Traineeship reference	Envisaged task	Most suitable profile	Starting period	Duration	Paid / not paid
2020/TR/SAS	MONITORING NEW DRUGS, SUPPLY AND MARKETS            Based within the SAS unit, the trainees will contribute to the work of two areas: 1) new psychoactive substances, and            2) drug markets, crime and supply reduction. In particular, in area 1), the trainee will contribute to: NPS data management; support the operation of the EU Early Warning System, including the preparation of reports on new psychoactive substances such as Initial Reports and Risk Assessments; and the monitoring of open source information. In area 2), the trainee will support the development, implementation and data analysis of supply-related data collections and tools; the technical content of expert meetings and training; and the development of the EMCDDA's open source information monitoring programme. The trainee will also contribute to anticipated threat assessments.	A science degree (e.g. pharmacology, medicine, biochemistry, toxicology, etc.) preferably with experience in quantitative data analysis. Excellent written English and computer/IT skills.	April / May 2020	8 months	Paid