

Traineeship reference	Envisaged task	Most suitable profile	Starting period (max. duration 6 months to take place during 2023)	Paid/unpaid
SAS	MONITORING NEW PSYCHOACTIVE SUBSTANCES, DRUG SUPPLY AND MARKETS Based within the Risks to public safety and security unit, the trainee will contribute to the work of two areas: 1) new psychoactive substances, and 2) drug markets, crime and supply reduction. In particular, in area 1), the trainee will contribute to: NPS data management; support the operation of the EU Early Warning System, including the preparation of reports on new psychoactive substances; and the monitoring of open source information. In area 2), the trainee will contribute to the work in the area of drug markets, crime and supply reduction. In particular, the trainee will contribute to: the analysis of data from the EMCDDA's open source information monitoring programme, with a focus on darknet markets data management and analysis; the analysis of other supply-related data collections and development of tools; the technical content of expert meetings and training.	A science degree (e.g. pharmacology, medicine, biochemistry, toxicology, etc.) preferably with experience in quantitative and qualitative data analysis; OR a degree in sociology, criminology or security studies. Excellent written English and computer/IT skills.	ASAP	paid