

CALL FOR APPLICATION FOR THE SELECTION OF TEMPORARY STAFF

No AD.2024.02 — ‘Scientific analyst, Drug markets and crime’ Temporary agent AD 6 — 5-year contract

EMCDDA

The EMCDDA is one of the European Union’s decentralised agencies. Established in 1993 and based in Lisbon, it is the central source of comprehensive information on drugs and drug addiction in Europe.

On 2 July 2024, the European Monitoring Centre for Drugs and Drug Addiction (EMCDDA) will become the European Union Drugs Agency (EUDA).

The EMCDDA is an equal opportunities employer and accepts applications without distinction on the grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, gender or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or family situation.

For further information on the EMCDDA, please visit:

<https://www.emcdda.europa.eu/>.

Position

The position we are recruiting for is currently situated within the Risks to Public Safety and Security unit, and the selected candidate will be reporting to the Head of Sector, Markets, Crime and Supply Reduction.

The core tasks of this post will be to:

- monitor the main developments in drug markets and drug-related crime activities in Europe and internationally;
- liaise with relevant European and international stakeholders involved in information and data collection, operational activities and academia relevant to drug markets and drug-related crime;
- report on drug markets and drug-related crime issues in EUDA outputs on the European drug situation.

More specifically, the job holder is expected to be knowledgeable about drug production, trafficking and distribution activities and to provide expertise on links between the drug market and other criminality, such as financial crime, violent crime and organised crime.

The post therefore requires a combination of technical content-related skills with general data analysis skills, as well as well-developed drafting and presentation skills for professional, policy and general audiences.

Main duties

The successful applicant will be requested to perform the following main tasks and responsibilities:

- monitor and analyse data sets and qualitative information related to drug markets from production, trafficking, distribution and use;
- develop EU-level data sets on drug-related crime and related data collection;
- produce high-quality evidence-based reports and briefings on contemporary issues related to drug markets, their consequences and drug-related crime and formulate recommendations and advice for policy responses;
- liaise with key partners including the Reitox national focal points in the EU Member States, as well as institutional counterparts at Europol, the European Commission, and other relevant expert groups;
- participate in the processes of the EU-level security architecture, including EMPACT;
- engage with wider expert networks and international organisations working on drug markets and drug-related crime;
- develop capacity-building activities in line with the EUDA strategy, including in countries outside the EU.

The job holder may be required to contribute to other areas of work, according to the needs and priorities of the EUDA.

In order to perform the duties of the post and ensure effective communication with the different actors and stakeholders involved, the main working language required for the job is English.

2. Submission of applications

2.1. Overview

Procedure

- Interested candidates must apply for this post through the EMCDDA e-recruitment application, accessible via this link: <https://e-recruitment.emcdda.europa.eu>.
- To make an online application candidates will need to create their EMCDDA profile using a valid e-mail address and a password.
- During the application procedure, candidates should ensure that they clearly indicate how they meet the selection criteria in their application.
- All sections of the application should be completed in English in order to facilitate the selection procedure.

Deadline for applications

The closing date for the submission of applications is 04/03/2024 at 23.59, Lisbon time.

2.2. Selection procedure

Selection on files

- During the selection on files, the selection committee assesses, on the basis of each application file received, whether candidates meet the requirements set for admission, eligibility and selection.
 - The essential requirements have a maximum of 10 points each. Non-compliance with at least one of the essential selection criteria will result in the exclusion of the candidate from the selection process.
 - The advantageous requirements have a maximum of 5 points each. Advantageous criteria constitute additional assets and will not result in exclusion, if not fulfilled.
 - On this basis, the selection committee will select the candidates that obtain at least 60% of the total points available to rank their compliance with the essential requirements and with the advantageous requirements.
 - The maximum number of invitees for an interview shall be 10. This ceiling may be altered, depending on the number of applications received, by decision of the appointing authority/authority authorised to conclude employment contracts (AA/AACC). Should the case arise that there are various candidates scoring the same number of points in the 10th ranking, the number of candidates to be invited will be increased accordingly to accommodate this.

Interview and written test

- The selected candidates will be invited to carry out an interview and a written test.
 - Interviews will be held by the selection committee, either at the EMCDDA premises or remotely (online).
 - The candidates will be assessed on the basis of the essential requirements mentioned above out of a maximum of 10 points each and the advantageous requirements above out of a maximum of 5 points each.
 - Candidates will be asked to undergo a written test, either at the EMCDDA premises or remotely (online).
 - The written test will be assessed on the basis of the essential requirements mentioned above and a maximum of 30 marking points will be available for this purpose.

Reserve list

- The work of the selection committee ends with the preparation of a draft reserve list of candidates considered suitable to occupy the position advertised, to be proposed to and approved by the AA/AACC of the EMCDDA.
 - Only candidates who reach 70% of the marking points can be included in the reserve list for appointment.
 - On the basis of the adopted reserve list, the AA/AACC of the EMCDDA may offer a contract of engagement.
 - Candidates shall note that inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment, which will depend, among other things, on availability of vacant posts and budget.
 - The established reserve list may be used in order to fill similar positions within the EMCDDA.
 - The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2026 and may be extended by decision of the EMCDDA appointing authority/authority authorised to conclude employment contracts.

Selection committee

The selection committee for this selection procedure will be composed as follows:

- Marie-Christine Ashby (member designated by the EMCDDA Staff Committee and chairperson)
- Andrew Cunningham (member)
- Teodora Groshkova (member)

The selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and any contact, either direct or indirect, with its members is strictly forbidden. The confidentiality principle is intrinsic to all steps of the recruitment procedure and is in accordance with Article 6 of Annex III to the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities.

Information on the process

Due to the high volume of applications expected, only candidates selected for interview will be contacted. Candidates who have not been contacted by the EMCDDA by 30/04/2024 should consider that their application has been unsuccessful.

For up-to-date information on the process of this selection procedure, please visit the EMCDDA's website at the following link:
