Position

The position we are recruiting for is currently situated within the Scientific Coordination Unit, and the selected candidate will report to the Scientific Director and work closely with the scientific coordination team.

The job holder will be responsible for supporting the Scientific Director in his work aimed at developing cooperation and technical activities with the scientific community and external stakeholders.

This includes the preparation of technical and scientific meetings, events and conferences; preparation and implementation of contracts for scientific activities; contributing to the preparation of technical reports and other technical documents aimed at facilitating cooperation between the agency and scientists, researchers and other external stakeholders; and providing support to the various scientific processes that are required for the team to successfully fulfil its responsibilities.

The job holder, with the guidance of the Scientific Director and the support of the other team members, will also be responsible for various organisational and technical tasks related to the Lisbon Addictions Conference, including assisting with the development of the scientific programme. The job holder will also contribute to the implementation of the new mandate of EUDA related to research coordination and advice on research gaps and needs.

Main duties

The successful applicant will be requested to perform the following main tasks and responsibilities:

- Contribute to achieving the objectives and outputs of the scientific coordination team as defined in the agency’s programming documents.

- Provide technical and organisational support to the work of the Scientific Director in coordinating cooperation with key scientific stakeholders.
- Review and summarise technical reports and other content-related documents and conduct literature searches.
- Provide relevant technical support to ensure a high-quality scientific programme at the Lisbon Addictions conference, assist with the planning and organisation of this event and other major meetings and events held with key scientific stakeholders.
- Contribute to the development and implementation of strategies to communicate the EMCDDA's work and related scientific research findings to diverse audiences, including policymakers, industry partners and the public.
- Contribute to the tasks related to the coordination of research, including the development of a research platform and a framework for defining research agendas and communicating the research findings.
- Facilitating engagement and cooperation with researchers and the research network.
- Support the review of research developments and provide summaries of key developments on request.
- Monitor the execution of the SDI budget allocated to specific projects.
- Provide appropriate technical and organisational support to other units as required to coordinate the technical activities of the agency and respond effectively to any necessary unplanned or ad hoc tasks.

The job holder may be required to contribute to other areas of work, according to the needs and priorities of the EMCDDA

In order to perform the duties of the post and ensure effective communication with the different actors and stakeholders involved, the main working language required for the job is English.

 - During the application procedure, candidates should ensure that they clearly indicate how they meet the selection criteria in their application.
 - All sections of the application should be completed in English in order to facilitate the selection procedure.

Deadline for applications

The closing date for the submission of applications is 29/04/2024 at 23.59, Lisbon time.

2.2. Selection procedure

Selection on files

- During the selection on files, the selection committee assesses, on the basis of each application file received, whether candidates meet the requirements set for admission, eligibility and selection.
- The essential requirements have a maximum of 10 points each. Non-compliance with at least one of the essential selection criteria will result in the exclusion of the candidate from the selection process.

- The advantageous requirements have a maximum of 5 points each. Advantageous criteria constitute additional assets and will not result in exclusion, if not fulfilled.
- On this basis, the selection committee will select the candidates that obtain at least 60% of the total points available to rank their compliance with the essential requirements and with the advantageous requirements.
- The maximum number of invitees for an interview shall be 10. This ceiling may be altered, depending on the number of applications received, by decision of the appointing authority/authority authorised to conclude employment contracts (AA/AACC). Should the case arise that there are various candidates scoring the same number of points in the 10th ranking, the number of candidates to be invited will be increased accordingly to accommodate this.

Interview and written test

- The selected candidates will be invited to carry out an interview and a written test.
- Interviews will be held by the selection committee, either at the EMCDDA premises or remotely (online).
- The candidates will be assessed on the basis of the essential requirements mentioned above out of a maximum of 10 points each and the advantageous requirements above out of a maximum of 5 points each.
- Candidates will be asked to undergo a written test, either at the EMCDDA premises or remotely (online).
- The written test will be assessed on the basis of the essential requirements mentioned above and a maximum of 30 marking points will be available for this purpose.

Reserve list

- The work of the selection committee ends with the preparation of a draft reserve list of candidates considered suitable to occupy the position advertised, to be proposed to and approved by the AA/AACC of the EMCDDA.
- Only candidates who reach 70% of the marking points can be included in the reserve list for appointment.
- On the basis of the adopted reserve list, the AA/AACC of the EMCDDA may offer a contract of engagement.
- Candidates shall note that inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment, which will depend, among other things, on availability of vacant posts and budget.
- The established reserve list may be used in order to fill similar positions within the EMCDDA.

- The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2026 and may be extended by decision of the AA/AACC of the EMCDDA.

Selection committee

The selection committee for this selection procedure will be composed as follows:

Alexander Söderholm (chairperson)

Klaudia Palczak (member)

Ana Moreira (member designated by the EMCDDA Staff Committee)

The selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and any contact, either direct or indirect, with its members is strictly forbidden. The confidentiality principle is intrinsic to all steps of the recruitment procedure and is in accordance with Article 6 of Annex III to the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities.

Information on the process

Due to the high volume of applications expected, only candidates selected for interview will be contacted. Candidates who have not been contacted by the EMCDDA by 15/06/2024 should consider that their application has been unsuccessful.

4. Request for review and appeal procedure

Request for review

A candidate who feels that a mistake has been made during the selection procedure may ask to have their application reconsidered by sending, within 20 calendar days from 15/06/2024, a request for review, quoting the number of the selection procedure concerned to the chairperson of the selection committee at the following address:

EMCDDA
Chairperson of the selection committee
Praça Europa 1, Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon
Portugal

The selection committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

Appeal procedure

If a candidate considers that they have been adversely affected by a particular decision, they can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union, at the following address:

The EMCDDA Director
Praça Europa 1, Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon
Portugal

The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?qid=1594050364017&uri=CELEX:01962R0031-20140101>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting them.

Like all citizens of the European Union, candidates can make a complaint to the European Ombudsman:

European Ombudsman
1 avenue du Président Robert Schuman — CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex

France

<https://www.ombudsman.europa.eu/pt/make-a-complaint>

Note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging complaints or for submitting appeals to the Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Note also that, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
