

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR THE SELECTION OF CONTRACT STAFF (AMENDED VERSION)

N°CA.2020.02 — Scientific agent

Contract agent (M/F) grade FG III — five-year contract

The EMCDDA is one of the European Union's decentralised agencies. Established in 1993 and based in Lisbon, it is the central source of comprehensive information on drugs and drug addiction in Europe.

The EMCDDA is an equal opportunities employer and accepts applications without distinction on the grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, gender or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or family situation. The EMCDDA actively encourages applications from women.

For further information on the EMCDDA, please visit <http://www.emcdda.europa.eu/>.

1. Job profile

1.1. Overall purpose

The jobholder will work as a scientific assistant in the Trends and Analysis sector, located within the Public Health unit (HEA), working closely with the Trends and Analysis Sector (TAS) analytical team, other HEA sectors, units and data providers, and under the coordination of the Head of Trends and analysis sector. The jobholder will provide data management support for the work necessary to monitor and report on the drug situation in Europe.

The jobholder will be involved in managing the collection, validation, processing, analysis and presentation of data collected by the EMCDDA. The EMCDDA collects information from a range of different sources and in a number of formats.

The EMCDDA is embarking on a process to improve its Master Data Management and related processes, its Data Quality processes and governance, and to review its Data infrastructure, with an interest in automation of processes. The job holder will play a major role in helping the TAS sector establish structured data tables within an existing data warehouse and other sources of drugs data and to automate the extraction and processing of data to produce graphics, tables and reports, providing content for the EMCDDA outputs.

Considering the horizontal nature of the contacts the job holder will have with all other EMCDDA units and external partners, and in order to ensure efficient execution of tasks, the vehicular language for this post has been defined as English.

1.2. Main duties

The successful applicant will be requested to contribute to the following tasks:

- Manage and validate data collected by the EMCDDA on the drug situation in Europe. This is undertaken in close collaboration with the Member States and other institutions providing the data;

- Develop well-defined structures (queries, views, tables, etc.) within an data warehouse for the purpose of analysis;
- Provide support to the TAS sector in developing efficient methods of data validation, storage, transformation, extraction and presentation which are reproducible through the use of scripts;
- Document operating procedures for data validation, storage, transformation, extraction and presentation to meet quality assurance requirements;
- Work with scientific analysts to produce tables, graphics and reports for EMCDDA outputs.
- Review EMCDDA output for data quality;
- Support the work of scientific analysts, including the review of national reports and the preparation for annual expert meetings;
- Any other tasks on request of the Head of the Trends and Analysis sector and/or the Head of the HEA unit.

2. Job requirements

2.1. Eligibility requirements

The following requirements shall be met by the deadline for applications:

- A level of education of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education and relevant professional experience of at least three years;
- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union, Norway or Turkey;
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws concerning military service, if any;
- Produce the appropriate character references as to the suitability for the performance of the required duties;
- Be physically fit to perform his/her duties ⁽¹⁾;
- A thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union and a satisfactory knowledge of another of these languages to the extent necessary for the performance of the required duties ⁽²⁾.

2.2. Essential requirements

Eligible candidates will then be evaluated as follows:

a – On the basis of the paper application by assessing the following:

- Proven experience (minimum 3 years) in data management including a scripting/programming component;
- A familiarity with databases and database structures, in particular the SQL query language;
- Proven ability in using standard software packages to transform data into graphics, tables and reports;
- Excellent analytical and organisational skills with a service- and project-oriented approach;
- Proven ability to communicate effectively in English in writing and to present complex matters in a simple way.

⁽¹⁾ As a condition for appointment, the successful candidate shall be medically examined in order that the EMCDDA may be satisfied that he/she fulfils this requirement, as foreseen in Article 12(d) of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities.

⁽²⁾ N.B.: In addition, in order to be eligible to a first promotion, the staff member shall prove a working knowledge of a third EU language.

b – On the basis of an interview and written tests by assessing the following:

- Experience of data collection, validation, transformation, description and documentation, and knowledge of associated software;
- Ability to define simple data tables from complex data sets and knowledge of associated software;
- Experience in providing user support on data-related matters;
- Proven ability in documenting standard processes (a sample will be requested after the first phase of selection);
- Ability to communicate efficiently with people at various levels of seniority and with different backgrounds;
- Very good capacity to maintain effective working relations in a multicultural environment;
- A good command of spoken English.

2.3. Advantageous requirements

Non-compliance with the advantageous requirements is not a condition for exclusion of applicants as these will be taken into account as assets while assessing each application. Advantageous requirements will only be assessed once during the course of the selection procedure, either in its first or second phase, according to the skills concerned. The advantageous requirements are as follows:

a – On the basis of the paper application by assessing the following:

- Good understanding of social sciences, public health or drug issues and methods;
- Basic understanding of statistical issues;
- Working knowledge of at least one statistical package;
- Experience of analysing survey data;
- Experience of collaboration with analysts and researchers especially from social and public health sciences.

b – On the basis of the interview and written tests by assessing the following:

- Ability to work within a broader ICT architecture;
- Experience of supporting the development of programming skills among colleagues;
- Ability to work under pressure and to prioritise requests;
- Good knowledge of the functioning of the European Union institutions, and, in particular, of the role of the EMCDDA;
- Further linguistic skills.

3. Submission of applications

Interested candidates must apply for this post through the EMCDDA e-recruitment application, accessible on this link: <https://e-recruitment.emcdda.europa.eu>. Please note that to make an EMCDDA online application you will need to create your EMCDDA profile using a valid e-mail address and a password.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 28/03/2020 at 23.59, Lisbon time. This deadline has been extended until 28/04/2020 at 23.59, Lisbon time.

4. Selection procedure

The selection will be carried out in two phases:

Phase 1: The selection committee will analyse the applications to verify the candidates' eligibility, by assessing their compliance with the relevant requirements, as set out in this call for applications (see section 2.1. above). Failure to comply with one of the eligibility requirements shall result in the exclusion of the applicant concerned from the selection procedure.

The selection committee will then select the eligible candidates who have obtained at least 60 % of the total points available to rank their compliance with the established essential requirements (as set out in section 2.2.a. above, a maximum of 10 marking points being available for each essential requirement) and with the established advantageous requirements (as set out in section 2.3.I. above, a maximum of 5 marking points being available for each advantageous requirement). The best ranked candidates, up to a maximum number of 10, will be invited to the next phase of the selection process. This number may be changed by decision of the appointing/contracting authority, depending on the number of applications received.

Phase 2: This phase will consist of a written test and an interview to be held by the selection committee. Via the interviews the selection committee will assess the compliance of the invited candidates with the established essential requirements (as set out in section 2.2.b. above, a maximum of 10 marking points being available for each essential requirement) and with the established advantageous requirements (as set out in section 2.3.II. above, a maximum of 5 marking points being available for each advantageous requirement). Candidates will be asked to undergo a written test related to the nature of duties to be performed. The selection committee will assess the result of the written tests anonymously, a maximum of 30 marking points being available for this purpose. The final assessment will reflect the results of the interview and of the written test.

Please note that the selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact, either direct or indirect, with its members is strictly forbidden.

The selection committee for this selection procedure will be composed as follows:

- Sandrine Sleiman (chairperson)
- André Noor (member)
- Teodora Groshkova (member)
- Federica Mathis (member)
- Ricardo Franco (member designated by the EMCDDA Staff Committee)

Due to the large volume of applications, only candidates selected for phase 2 will be contacted. Candidates who have not been contacted by the EMCDDA by 31/05/2020 should consider that their application has been unsuccessful. For up-to-date information on the process of this selection procedure, please visit the EMCDDA's website at the following link:
<http://www.emcdda.europa.eu/about/jobs>

Applicants invited for the second phase may be entitled to a flat-rate contribution towards travel and subsistence expenses. Information will be provided together with the invitation letter.

5. Reserve list and engagement

The work of the selection committee ends with the preparation of a draft reserve list of candidates considered suitable to occupy the position advertised, to be proposed to and approved by the appointing/contracting authority of the EMCDDA.

Only candidates who reach 70 % of the marking points available for the second phase can be included in the reserve list for appointment. On the basis of the adopted reserve list, the appointing/contracting authority of the EMCDDA may offer a contract of engagement. Candidates shall note that the inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee that recruitment, which will depend, among other things, on availability of vacant posts and budget.

The established reserve list may be used in order to fill similar positions within the EMCDDA.

The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2022 and may be extended by decision of the EMCDDA appointing/contracting authority.

6. Conditions of employment

6.1. Legal framework

A contract offer will be made pursuant to the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union, (see <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=CONSLEG:1962R0031:20140101:EN:PDF>), for five-year period according to Article 85 of the mentioned rules.

The place of employment will be Lisbon, Portugal, where the EMCDDA has its seat.

6.2. Pay and welfare benefits

The job holder's monthly basic salary, for FGIII in grade 8 will be approximately EUR 2 750 and in grade 9 approximately EUR 3 100. In addition to this basic salary, the jobholder may be entitled to various allowances, in particular an expatriation or foreign residence allowance and family allowances, including household allowance, dependent child allowance, pre-school allowance and an education allowance.

Under certain circumstances, in particular where the job holder is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the EMCDDA may also reimburse various expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

The salary of the job holder is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and is exempt from national tax. The salary package will be affected by a weighting factor and includes the European Community social security and pensions schemes.

6.3. Confirmation of engagement and security clearance

Staff engaged by the EMCDDA is required to serve a probationary period of nine months. Successful applicants may be required to undergo a security vetting and clearance procedure.

A certificate of good conduct must be provided to the EMCDDA prior the signature of the employment contract. In case of unfavourable entries in the certificate of good conduct, the EMCDDA reserves the right not to award an employment contract.

6.4. Declaration of commitment to serve public interest independently

Staff engaged by the EMCDDA is required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to the interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

EMCDDA staff is required to carry out their duties and conduct solely with the interests of the EMCDDA and of the European Community in mind; they shall neither seek nor take instruction from any government, authority, organisation or person outside his institution. EMCDDA staff shall carry out the duties assigned objectively, impartially and in keeping with the duty of loyalty to the EMCDDA and to the European Community.

7. Request for review and appeal procedure

A candidate who feels that a mistake has been made during the selection procedure may ask to have his/her application reconsidered by sending, within 20 calendar days from 31/07/2020, a request for review, quoting the number of the selection procedure concerned to the Chairman of the selection committee at the following address:

EMCDDA
Chairperson of the selection committee
Praça Europa 1, Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon

Portugal

The selection committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

The EMCDDA Director
Praça Europa 1, Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon
Portugal

The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations <http://eurlex.europa.eu/en/index.htm>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Like all citizens of the European Union, you can make a complaint to the European Ombudsman:

European Ombudsman
1 avenue du Président Robert Schuman — CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
FRANCE
<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu/media/en/default.htm>

Note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging complaints or for submitting appeals to the Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Note also that, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
