

EMCDDA's Traineeships – 2017 exercise

Traineeship number	Envisaged task	Most suitable profile	Starting period	Paid or unpaid
2017/TR/IBS	INTERVENTIONS Based within the health consequences and responses unit this traineeship will assist with the review of national workbooks and the preparation of national data for inclusion in web based products. The trainee will also support the identification and dissemination of best practices and contribute to the work on the monitoring of drug related deaths/harms and responses related to that.	Degree in public health, psychology, medicine, social sciences or similar with specific qualification and interest in epidemiology and evidence based decision making. Excellent written EN and very good computer skills	1st half 2017	Paid