

EMCDDA's Traineeships – 2017 exercise

Traineeship number	Envisaged task	Most suitable profile	Starting period	Paid or unpaid
2017/SAT/01	MONITORING NEW DRUGS Based within the SAT unit, this traineeship will contribute to the work in the area of new psychoactive substances, in particular with: NPS data management and the development of a new European database on new drugs; to support the operation of the EU Early Warning System, including the preparation of reports on new psychoactive substances such as Joint Reports and Risk Assessments; and, to contribute to the monitoring of open source information.	A science degree (e.g. pharmacology, medicine, biochemistry, toxicology, etc.) preferably with experience in quantitative data analysis. Excellent written English and computer/IT skills.	1st half 2017	Paid