

EMCDDA's Traineeships – 2017 exercise

Traineeship number	Envisaged task	Most suitable profile	Starting period	Paid or unpaid
2017/SAT/02	SUPPLY AND MARKETS This traineeship will be embedded in the drug markets, crime and supply reduction sector and will provide support to the sector in the execution of tasks. In particular, support will be provided to the development, implementation and data analysis of supply-related data collections and tools; the technical content of expert meetings and training; and the development of the EMCDDA's open source information monitoring programme. The traineeship will also contribute to anticipated threat assessments.	Degree in criminology, natural or social sciences; with relevant experience. Good analytical skills required. Experience of working in a law enforcement environment advantageous. Knowledge of MS Office suite, essential; (basic) knowledge of statistics advantageous; good knowledge of English required. Experience with working with criminal justice data also useful.	1st half 2017	Paid